I have taught in a wide range of schools, including a large primary school in London in an area of high social deprivation, as well as at an International School in Switzerland. I have a degree in English Literature, and have previously led English in two schools. My current role is Mathematics leader, and I am leading the Shanghai Project for the Maths Hub across ten schools in East and West Sussex, and Brighton and Hove.

Charlotte Rowland

I am Inclusion Manager and part of the SLT at Meeching Valley Primary School in Newhaven. I work as Senco, Pupil Premium Champion, and EAL link teacher, within this role. I have led Key Stage 1 and Early Years, and I am currently leading Key Stage 2. I have worked in a school under challenging circumstances and I understand the importance of teamwork, effective coaching and the need to inspire both teachers and pupils.

Ruth Turner

I have 20 years of English teaching experience in comprehensive schools across London, Brighton and currently at Chailey. For the last 13 years I have led English faculties. At Chailey I am the Faculty Leader for English as well as Assistant Head with responsibilities for: Teaching and Learning; Quality Assurance; and Leading the East Sussex English Hub. I am also an accredited facilitator of the Outstanding and Improving Teaching Programmes. My particular strengths are formative assessment and closing the gap; engaging low ability learners; and developing talk including Philosophy for Children.

Katy O'Neill

I am the music and MFL co-ordinator at South Malling CE Primary School in Lewes. I am a classroom teacher in Key Stage One, and Key Stage Two. My interest in languages has led to me teaching and living in France and Spain. This experience is proving invaluable in teaching children about the need for modern foreign languages. My passion is to incorporate the performing arts into the primary curriculum to boost engagement and achievement.

Claire Palmer

I have over 12 years teaching experience within secondary schools across East Sussex. I have been a County Mathematics AST, before being seconded to East Sussex County as a Teaching and Learning Consultant for both Primary and Secondary Maths. I am currently Deputy Faculty Leader at Chailey School, as well as being Induction Tutor overseeing NQT, PGCE and School's Direct Placements. Through the Sussex Maths Hub and the NCETM, I am leading the Secondary Shanghai/UK Mathematics Exchange Project for East Sussex, West Sussex and Brighton and Hove.

Sara Marshallsay

I have been an English teacher for 19 years and have led teaching and learning as a senior teacher at assistant and deputy head level at Chailey School. I am currently Deputy Principal at Uckfield Community Technology College, my main areas of experience are; leading teaching and learning, staff development, pupil premium, curriculum development and assessment.

Tim Dudgeon

Currently an Assistant Headteacher at Chailey School (11-16), my background is that of a History teacher and former AST with over twenty years experience supporting colleagues in a wide range of schools in East Sussex and beyond. My present role has particular focus on teaching and learning, as well as CPD in which I have been specialising in classroom-based research. I have had the good fortune to also have been involved in a national project on Student Voice, Formative Assessment and approaches to History for the able and enthused.

Catarina Granville

I teach at Harbour Primary and Nursery School in Newhaven. I have taught in Key Stage Two for 14 years, and before that in several secondary schools in Sweden. I am the English KS2 Subject Leader and Pupil Premium Champion. I enjoy new challenges, as they help me to reflect on my own practice, and make changes which will ultimately benefit the children in my class and beyond. In my spare time I enjoy spending time with my family, kayaking, and playing the ukulele!
